

16 Items to Pack in a Roadside Emergency Kit

Whether you are taking a casual drive or embarking on a long road trip, you never know when an emergency will arise. As such, it's important to have a roadside emergency kit packed in your vehicle. Consider including the following items in your kit:

Health Essentials

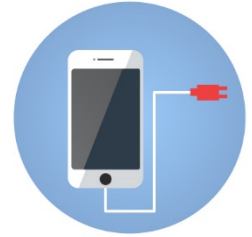

A first-aid kit

Crucial medications

Water and nonperishable food items

A cellphone and charger

Vehicle Essentials

Jumper cables

Road flares and distress signs

A spare tire

Vehicle liquids

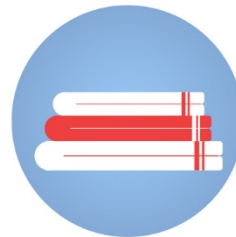

Weather Essentials

A flashlight

A windshield scraper and shovel

A blanket

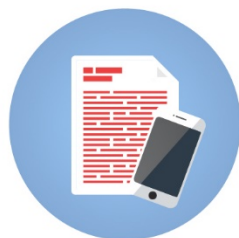

A set of warm clothes

Document Essentials

Vital medical information

Emergency contact numbers

Proof of insurance and driver's license

The owner's manual for your vehicle